Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "free" any more than a merchant can give his customer free goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business, and its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We Knew We Had a Good Thing in the Stock of Goods

We bought by electric light a few days since. There is so much clap-trap clothing advertisements in vogue just now that we refrained from saying very much about the purchase. We simply called the public's attention to it by telling them to look at the display of these goods in our windows and note the prices on them. We knew we would sell some of them. The warm weather left a doubt as to selling a great many now. The doubt is dispelled. Since the day we opened this purchase and placed them in our windows our store has been crowded with customers anxious to secure these unheard-of bargains. We advise our friends who contemplate buying Fall Suits and Overcoats not to let this opportunity slip. It is only once in a long time that circumstances arise that enable merchants to secure first-class clothing that can be sold for less money than the cheaply gotten-up stuff that is flooding the market just now.

Our $2, $2.50 and $3 Custom-Made SHOES!

That we warrant to give satisfaction and cheerfully return the money if they do not have quickly sprung into favor. Out of town mail orders—any of which we receive—must receive prompt attention. Look at our show-windows; none like them in the state.

BLACK DIAMOND NEWS

South Carolina Right in Line For the Coming System.

MASS MEETING AT ANDERSON.

At a big mass meeting held at Anderson, S. C., November 4th, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote:

WHEREAS, Colonel Albert E. Boone for the last three years has been giving his undivided attention to the promotion of the Black Diamond Railway System from the Northwest via Knoxville, Tenn., to Tidewater on the South Atlantic, and has, with his inexhaustible energy, aroused enthusiasm among the people in the states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee, along the route of the proposed road; and whereas, the people of the city of Anderson and vicinity, with the delegates from various points along the proposed route through South Carolina, have heard the plans proposed by Colonel Boone for the building, equipping and running said road; and whereas, the route proposed has long been regarded the most practicable and feasible one from the Atlantic seaboard to the Gulf of Mexico, and whereas, the rapid growth in population, as well as the development of industries of our country, are such that with this great trunk line penetrating into the heart of the coal and iron regions of Tennessee, Indiana and Kentucky it will be necessary to operate a double track road as outlined by Colonel Boone; and whereas, it appears from the testimony before us that the people along the proposed route in the city of Anderson, have signed a petition asking the City Council to submit to the voters a proposition to vote a subscription of $50,000 in bonds to said road, in accordance with the acts of the General Assembly in such case provided; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby endorse the plan of building said road as outlined by Colonel Boone, and let our city our united support in carrying this grand work to completion.

Resolved, That Colonel Boone and his associates are entitled to our material support in all that is necessary to the preliminary work so as to hasten the early completion of the road, and to the end we recommend the several towns and cities along the proposed route take immediate steps towards raising the necessary funds to secure the location of said road by surveys, rights of way, &c., so as to facilitate the work.

Resolved, That if the towns and cities will do their part of the work, we have unqualified confidence in Colonel Boone's ability to complete the proposed road, which will mark the greatest triumph in railroad building of the nineteenth century, for the South Atlantic and great West will then be indissolubly bound together by bonds of steel.

The three year old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lexington, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros., of that place, and he handles a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had at that time to choose from, and skilled physicians ready to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says it is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by J. James Wood, Druggist.

One hundred thousand tons of Alabama coal have recently gone to Mexico for the use of her locomotives. Good for the South.

SENATOR THURSTON thinks the result of the election in Greater New York indicates that the Democrats will vote that state for the Presidential nominee in 1900.

The Portsmouth Blade, speaking of the recent result in Ohio, calls attention to the fact that this is the first time in almost thirty years since the Republican party has won out the year after a Presidential election.

THURSDAY day a gentleman paid THE LEDGER a very high compliment. He said it could "say the meanest things in the meanest way of any paper he knew." Well, that's because there are so many infernally mean people.

At least 300 Negroes in Bourbon county sold the God-given, blood-bought right to vote for $5 and board.—Paris Reporter, (Republican).

They went cheap; THE LEDGER understands that $10 was the ruling price in some parts of Mason county.

The newspaper that undertakes to satisfy everybody, and there are such, is not worth the price it would bring for fuel in tophet.—Portsmouth Tribune.

In a long and honorable career Brother VALJEAN never ntered a greater truth. The Editor who tries to please everybody pleases nobody.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY says that the published report that he might be a candidate for the Senate was only idle gossip and had no foundation.

"I am out of politics," said the Governor, "and there is just as much probability of my taking to the pulpit as there is of my becoming a candidate for Senator."

This being the case, "that do settle it."

OPponents of Civil Service have determined that the next census affords a vulnerable point of attack. The bill providing for the census of 1900 will, it is expected, be introduced and passed at the approaching session of Congress. One thing that has been definitely determined by Republican Senators who usually control their party action in the Upper House is that the next Census Bureau shall be exempted from the operation of the Civil Service Law. Some Senators have gone so far as to declare that unless the force of the Census Bureau is released from the operation of the Civil Service they will filibuster against the passage of the bill providing for the census enumeration.

The stuck pig always squeals. The force of this remark is in its application.

IN Mr. BRYAN'S tour through Ohio he made substantially the same speech at every point.

The Democratic sneers about the Pacific Railroad are nothing more than should be expected of that party. Not Democratic but Republican Administrations helped to make arrangements to build the Pacific railroads, and a Republican Administration saw them completed; now a Republican Administration will close out the Government's connection with them. In all these transactions the interests of the country have been carefully and zealously guarded, and the benefits which have accrued to the country by this connection of the two oceans cannot be estimated. The cost of the road is not an item in contrast.

A SPECIAL from Danville to The Commercial Tribune gives the particulars of the slick scheme that was worked with the Negro Uncertain Quantity voters in Boyle county. It says the Democratic workers employed some very ingenious methods to vitiate the Republican ballots, having secretly solved the problem of robbing the ballot box of its sting so far as the floating vote is concerned.

Until this year it has been almost impossible to bribe the colored voters. The Negro, as a rule, has remained steadfast to the faith of his fathers and marked his ballot straight. Latterly, however, the Democrats have succeeded in keeping many of them from the polls by employing them to leave the community early on the morning of election day and to remain away until the following morning; but some of them who were willing to take money wanted a show of voting in order to avoid the odium attached to a plain case of sell-out. How to handle this class has until now been rather a puzzle to those buying the votes. They were able to take them at their promise to vote the straight Democratic ticket, and were likewise averse to running the danger of prosecution for being a party to the open mutilation of the ballot.

Tuesday they succeeded in getting around all difficulties. A great many Negroes were willing to sell, but fear of their friends' denunciation forced them to accept bribes under cover. They were taken care of. As every voter of this character went in to mark his ballot he was given a scrap of white paper, which was gummed on one side. The reverse side contained a peculiar inscription, like "X 2," for instance. In a little book kept by the man handling the money there was a record of the sticker, and opposite the duplicate mark was put the name of the voter to whom it was given.

The "float," as such men are termed, was instructed to enter the booth, dampen the meeting on the scrap of paper and paste it on the ballot. Having thus disguised the ballot, he was to fold it up just as if he had voted regularly and hand it to the Clerk.

Under the law each party is allowed one representative at the count when the polls close. These representatives were instructed by their confederates to keep a lookout for ballots containing the tell-tale stickers, and when one appeared it was promptly recorded. The next morning, or the evening of the same day, the books were compared, and wherever it was found that a "float" had carried on his instructions he was given the sum promised. This game was worked in a number of counties in Central Kentucky. In some precincts the game was played, the darky being offered $5 for a scrap of his ballot containing a certain device. It is estimated that in Boyle county alone at least 300 Negroes were either hired to leave home or to mutilate their ballots.

LYNN TAYLOR,

Whose Desecration of His Plaque at the Altar Caused His Arrest. Follows Her Example.

CYNTHIANA, Ky., Nov. 10.—Lynn Taylor, aged 35, married himself with a halter to a rafter in his mother's barn Tuesday. Taylor's body was found at the foot of the rafter Tuesday afternoon. He had been dead for several hours. The last seen of him alive was early Tuesday morning.

Exactly two weeks ago Tuesday his sweetheart, Miss Mary Burns, hanged herself in precisely the same way. For some time she had been engaged to Lynn Taylor, but parental objections had prevented the marriage. These objections were removed a short time ago and the wedding set for October 30.

All the preparations had been made and the guests were assembling when word was received that young Taylor had boarded the north-bound train at Cynthiana and left for parts unknown. The intended bride's grief was pathetic.

Friends did everything possible to locate her, but she slipped away on pretense of wanting to be alone. She went straight to the stable and hanged herself.

Eastern Capitalists start a New Enterprise at Owensboro, Ky.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 10.—The plant of the Marsden Development Co. started Tuesday. It is a new industry and cornstalks is the material used. One hundred men are employed and the capacity of the works is 300,000 tons annually per year. The products are various, one of the principal being cellulose for the lining of bathtubs. The company has a contract for four tons a week of material to be used in the manufacture of artificial silk and another with one of the leading cellulosic firms for large quantities of material, which will render the manufacture of that compound much less expensive.

The concern will prepare for the manufacture of paper from stalks experiments having demonstrated that it can be produced much more cheaply than from wood.

The buildings of the company cover two city squares, the main structure being iron and steel, and is 100 feet high. W. W. Gibbs, of Philadelphia, is president, and all the stock is owned by eastern capitalists.

THE SAME BULLET

That Dropped Her Father's Enemy Killed Her.

THYDES, Ky., Nov. 10.—Marie Ingles, who was struck by a Winchester ball while her father was shooting James Singleton with a few days ago, died Tuesday morning. It develops that the ball came from her father's gun, and was the same ball which gave Singleton his death wound.

Ingles, when told that the investigation showed that he had killed both his daughter and her father, was distressed and fears are entertained that he may not survive the shock. Ingles claims that he was justified in taking the life of Singleton, but says that Singleton's death is avenged in that he lost his own daughter's life to his enemy.

Miss Ingles was a mountain belle, whose friends were legion. Her character was spotless, and so great was her love for her father that she jumped between him and Singleton while they were firing at each other.

A Crack Appears at the White House—Appointment by the President—Indiana Man Given a Good Position—Trade with Italy Closes the Liferest.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The full text of Spain's reply to the Woodford note was read at the cabinet meeting Tuesday. It was very pacific, and instead of being at all warlike, was received by the cabinet with very satisfactory, and as calculated to allay any fear of a hostile outbreak.

The cabinet also gave consideration to the proposed Behring sea whaling fleet. Two plans have been decided upon, one to send the Bear from Seattle and the other to send the Thetis from San Francisco. This latter determination was reached after the receipt of a telegram by Secretary Long from the commandant of the Mare Island navy yard, stating that the whaling fleet could be at once sent immediately on their mission. It is stated that there is a very good supply of provisions at Point Barrow and another supply at Herschel Island, also that at least three vessels well supplied with provisions will winter in the Arctic. The location of the Behring sea whaling fleet, which is wanted for transportation, is not known, but it is believed a supply can be obtained.

A crack appeared at the white house early Tuesday and demanded to see President McKinley. He said to the president that he did not treat him right. He tried to go up stairs by the elevator, but was taken in charge by the officers. He tried to hide behind the conservatory, and was then taken to the police station.
